PRECARIOUS WORKERS BRIGADE

TRAINING FOR EXPLOITATION? POLITICISING EMPLOYABILITY AND RECLAIMING EDUCATION

A WORKSHOP FOR ARTISTS, DESIGNERS, CURATORS,
EDUCATORS, STUDENTS & CULTURAL PRODUCERS

Precarious Workers Brigade will offer an introduction to their practice and recent book, Training for Exploitation? Politicising Employability and Reclaiming Education, which provides a pedagogical framework to assist other cultural producers in deconstructing dominant narratives around work, employability and careers. The collective will conduct a workshop using tools from the book to critically examine the relationship between education, contemporary crises of work, artistic labour, student debt and the challenge of building solidarities.

This public event aims to facilitate broader discussion around work/live relations in Gothenburg and the region in particular, starting with the lived experience of local practitioners. The session will consider how to effectively refuse exploitative working conditions and support each other in more equitable ways of doing and being.
